GRASPING a strand of wire Jack swings thro the air from the moat down to the runway below where Satan and his men have Dolores. He suceeds in driving off the bandits and helps Dolores to escape from the cas-

Satan immediately sends out a message to all his spies to watch for the two escaped prisoners and report their hiding-place to him as soon as they are located.

In the meantims Jack and Dolores as soon as they get into the city go to Lieut. Alvarez and tell him of their experience and ask him if he has received word of the ring.

Lieut. Alvarez tells them that, although word had gone out to the Port Captain of every harbor, no word had so far been received that the bottle had been picked up. He advised Jack and Dolores to remain in hiding for the time being. He sends them to an old deserted hut near the Almendares River.

While they are enroute for the hut they are seen by one of Satan's men who follows their trail. As soon as he makes sure of their new hiding-place he leaves for Satan's castle, where he reports what he has learned to his chief.

Satan then organizes a crew who he sends to the hut to overcome Jack and Dolores and bring them to him. Jack sees the men coming and escapes from the hut with Dolores. They get into a car and are pursued by the bandits along the river bank and over several bridges. Just as they come to the longest bridge over the Almendares River, Satan's men overhaul the other car and during the terrific fight which follows, Jack is knocked off the [illegible]
