E. H. Smith

Irving Cummings

JUN 18 1921

Irving Cummings Production Co.

1729½ Highland Avenue
Hollywood, Calif.

©CIL 16683

" TRICKED "

Story by Hope Loring.

In a small settlement in the heart of the Canadian Woods= lived a Girl with her Father who was the Factor at the Beacon Bay Fur Co. One day a young man fashionably dressed appeared with proper credetials to Audit the Companys Books Now Corporal of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police was in love with her and it happened that this day the inhabitiants of the little Village were giveing a dance for the Town Hall and the Girl and her Chinese servent were busy preparing the party when they interupted by the ne'er do well of the place after rebuking him she went home and there met the young man from head quarters as the time grew near to go to the dance she grew nerveous because Corporal Campbell did not appear so finaly she accepted the offer of the young man to take her, soo Campbell came and while Gaieties were at their height, the chinese servant who har been sent back to the store for more refreshments rushed back to the dance and breathlessly reported his Master injured by a blow on the head and the safe robbed great cobsternation followed and every one rushed to the store to find the Chinese words true.

The young man from headquarters of Beacon Bay Fur. Co., insisted that the Girls Father was Guilty of the Robbery himself in order not to have to settle up accounts with the Company. and ordered Corporal Campbell to arrest him the Girl was indignant and Campbell himself didnot believe the old man guiltyespecialy after he noticed fresh mud on the boots of the Town ne'er do well but in order to realy solve the mistery he place the old man under arrest and dispersed the crowd and soon retired for the night, before retiring he goes to the Chinese servants quarters and instructed him to give the Girl the key to the room where her Father was locked and tell them to ride to the outpost and report what had happened , he also told the chineseman to throw a rock around which was tied a note thru the window of the Cabin occupied bythe ne'er do well the note was to the effect that the other man was planing to take the money and leave town The Chineseman did as instructed, the ne'er do well read the noteand rushed quickley to a deserted shack at the River Bottom the Chineseman also as per instructions of Corporal Campbell told the young man from headquarters where the ne'er do well had gone he immediately rushed after the ne'er do well and the two were arguing in the deserted shack as Corporal Campbell appeared on the scene caught them red handed with the money - terrific fight followed in the midst of it the Seargent of the R.N.W.M.P accompanied by the girl rode up the seargent Hand cuffed the men ordered them out and the Girl and Corporal Campbell found solace in each others arms.

Prod Security Corp.
2 Reels -

This document is from the Library of Congress
"Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, 1912-1977"

Collections Summary:

The Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, Class L and Class M, consists of forms, abstracts, plot summaries, dialogue and continuity scripts, press kits, publicity and other material, submitted for the purpose of enabling descriptive cataloging for motion picture photoplays registered with the United States Copyright Office under Class L and Class M from 1912-1977.

Class L Finding Aid:
https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi020004

Class M Finding Aid:
https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi021002

National Audio-Visual Conservation Center
The Library of Congress