BELIEVING Jack has been drowned in the swift current of the Almendares, Satan's men take Dolores and return to the castle—though as a precaution they leave one man behind for Jack's possible escape. As Jack makes shore, Lieut. Alvarez arrives to see how he and Dolores are getting along, and Satan's spy sees him and Jack together. He listens as Jack tells what has happened to Dolores, and hears him agree to go back to the port captain's office to see if trace has been found of the ring before he makes another attempt to rescue Dolores from Satan's hands. The spy reports to Satan, who is with his men in the mess room of his stronghold. Satan sends two men wtih a message he forces Dolores to sign, saying that unless the ring is delivered with two hours, Dolores dies. The men go to the port captain's office, deliver their message in a peculiar way and wait until they hear Jack tell Alvarez that he will go at once to the castle. They report accordingly to Satan, and Satan makes arrangements to allow Jack to pass his guards. He lets Jack into the mess room and then drops a steel cage around him. Threatening him as well as Dolores with instant death unless he delivers the ring. Satan touches a button and the teeth of the cage move downwards upon Jack.
