SEEING escape is impossible Jack pretends to offer the ring in exchange for his liberty. Satan stops the tools from descending and takes the ring Jack hands him. Before he can discover it is not "The Seal of Satan," Dolores breaks loose, touches the button which raises the cage and releases Jack. He mixes with Satan's men and a free for all starts. Eventually, however, Jack is overcome by numbers and he and Dolores are once more imprisoned—he in the castle proper, and she in a separate cell on the far side of the great moat. Then Jack is told by Satan that unless he delivers the ring immediately he will be placed before a firing squad. Jack tries to convince Satan that the ring is lost but to no availl. Satan tries to get Dolores to tell where the ring is when Jack is led out on top of the parapet and placed before the executioners. Meanwhile the Mystery Woman has been seen around the room outside of which the firing squad has been resting. She sends a mysterious message to Jack to which he agrees. Then Satan, from his position by the window of Dolores' cell, gives the signal and the firing squad gets orders to fire. Jack falls and his body is thrown over the wall into the surf beneath.
