"DESPERATION"

Two-reel Western

MYRTLE VANE, returned East after an exciting holiday in the wild and woolly West, doesn't recognize Bob Vernon, now dressed in evening clothes, as the picturesque cowboy who rescued her from a trio of stage robbers. Bob is disappointed in the lack of excitement to be found in the East, so Myrtle frames up a "phoney" kidnapping.

Bob rises to the occasion and gives the "kidnappers" a terrific trouncing after a thrilling chase. During the melee a lamp overturns, and Myrtle is saved from burning to death by Bob, who risks his life to save her. Her gratitude develops into a deeper feeling and Bob takes her out to his ranch home a bride.
