"WITH STANLEY IN AFRICA"

Episode Eleven

"The Lion's Prey"

JACK overcomes his captors, rushes to Naida's aid and manages to rush off with her as the lions dash past into the arena. They rush up a blind passage and are recaptured.

Stanley, losing patience with the surly Shaw, discharges him. Later, however, he accepts his apologies and permits him to rejoin the safari. That night Stanley is shot at; suspicion rests on Shaw, who offers a feeble excuse.

Hassan, Jack's faithful ally, is searching the Walled City for his master. Cameron is forced by the Sultana to meet in combat a huge gladiator. Just as things look worst, Hassan comes to his aid and assists him and Naida to escape. After a breath-taking flight, Jack is cornered in the corner of a courtyard. A trained elephant is sent towards him with the intention of squeezing him to death.
