"WITH STANLEY IN AFRICA"

Episode Sixteen

"The Slave's Secret"

HARDEN is amazed at the news of Nadia's disappearance. Selim finds the sword with which Hassan has been killed and tells Jack it belongs to the Uganda tribe, which had passed Stanley's camp a few hours before. Stanley instructs Selim to accompany Jack and Harden on their search for Nadia.

Jack and Harden camp near the camp where Nadia is confined. Harden sends out spies, but Jack, dissatisfied, creeps out with Selim at night and searches for her.

Nadia then feigns illness and is treated by the Arabs, her captors, with great consideration. They do not watch her, because of her apparent weakness. She goes to the defense of some badly treated slaves, but is badly worsted. Later that night she creeps out and unfastens their bonds and lets them go. In gratitude for this the king of the tribe tells her of the whereabouts of the white tribe which Jack is seeking.

Jack and Selim creep near the Arabs' camp and pass the escaping slaves. They finally reach camp and are discovered during the search for the missing slaves. Jack demands to know the owner of the sword he carries and Nadia, hearing Jack's voice, runs past the guard into Jack's arms. The Arabs claim they found Nadia wandering about in the jungle delirious. They collapse the tent, getting Jack underneath. Nadia runs off and a lion knocks her down and carries her off.
