"FOOLS' HIGHWAY"

Universal Super-Jewel

Starring MARY PHILBIN

MAMIE ROSE, little clothes-mender in the tailor shop of old Levi, is loved by Mike Kildare, pugilist and ward-heeler of the Bowery. She repulses his advances, horrified by his business, but still fascinated by the man's brute strength and animal attraction. He lures her on, but finally the girl's innocence shames him. Then he discovers that his love for her is a pure and holy thing.

He forsakes his old gang as a consequence; they lay a trap for him, and he is horribly beaten in an underground den. Then follows one of the strangest, most gripping denouements ever screened. The story is rich in the romance of the old Bowery; its quaint characters are intensely human, and it is tense in interest from opening to fadeout.
