SCREEN MAGAZINE ~~No. 58~~.

UNIVERSAL Vol. 1 No. 58

EVEN if millions of men have left commercial employment to go to war, industry is still hitting on all of its eight cylinders. Women have become democracy's valient helpers. Even in munition factories they are more than holding their end with the men, as shown in Screen Magazine Nofl 58. As yet, however, they have not invaded the police department.

The Screen Magazine devotes a quarter of its space to a mighty interesting view of New York's finest, and the gymnastic, boxing and wrestling instructions have made the New York police force a terror to crooks.

The Screen Magazine also shows how pineapples are harvested in Hawaii, how they are packed and shipped to be made into pieapple sundaes.

Supplementing the X-Ray moving pictures which caused such a sensation in Screen Magazine No. 55, the magazine this week shows how the X-Ray has come to be essential in the science of dentistry.

The magazine closes with a Miracle In Mud by Willie Hopkins, entitled "Movie Aspirants."
