AUG 30 '21 "WHAT A WHOPPER" -C- By Hal E. Roach.

AUG 30 '21 CIL 16912 C

AUG 30 '21 The comedy opens showing Pollard, the fisherman, and his friend, the hunter, returning from a day's outing. Neither have had any luck and they hie themselves to a game market, where "Snub" buys a good-sized fish, and his friend, a duck. Then both separate to show the results of their outing to their wives. Pollard is joyfully greeted by his spouse and he proceeds to tell her the story of his catch. The film then fades out into the story. "Snub" is seen riding in his flivver, driven by "Sunshine Sambo" along the banks of the river. He casts his line in and immediately a fish takes hold. The inhabitant of the briny is so large that Pollard is unable to pull it in, and as the fish swims down the river the flivver is dragged along the bank. Finally the fish pulls the machine into the river and the fisherman still holding onto the pole. Eventually, "Snub" shows his wife the package of fish, and unwrapping it, the contents prove to be the duck, his friend's [illegible]e. In the house next door, the hunt[illegible]
