2nd Verse.

Al....rea....dy in the gol....den east the glo..rious light is dawning, And watch..men from the moun...tain tops, can see the bless...ed morning. O'er all the land their voi...ces ring, while yet the world is nap...ping, 'Till e'en the slug..gards be...

Chorus.

-gin to spring, as they hear the spi.....rits "rap...ping," O! the &c

3rd Verse.

The cap...tive now be...gins to rise and burst his chains a...
-sun-der, While Pol...i...ti-cians stand a-ghast, in anx-ious fear and won-der. No lon.....ger shall the bond....man sigh be...
-neath the gall....ing fet....ters, He sees the Dawn of Free...dom nigh, and reads the gol.....den let...ters, O! the &c

Chorus.

4th Verse.

And all the Old Dis...til.....le-ries shall perish and burn to-
-ge-ther, The Bran-dy, Rum, and Gin, and Beer, and all such, what-so-
-ev...er The world be...gins to feel the fire, [redacted] e'en the poor be..... sot....ter, To save him...self from burn...ing up, jumps in the cool.....ing wa...ter. O! the &c
