©CIL 16938 THE HONOR OF RAMERIZ.

By...

The title of the picture indicates a hero character offering strong contrast to those usually portrayed by Santschi -- romantic and prideful, with the whimsical Latin-American flavor, in which the star is said to acquit himself most happily. He is the ardent lover of his young wife, who is of the Spanish dancer type; and she, of course, is jealous. But when the Rameriz honor is concerned, all her suspicions and desperate acts must remain in abeyance until justice is done. This is Ruth Stonehouse's part.
