SEP -7 1921 / " ON THEIR WAY" by Hal E. R[illegible]ch ©CIL [illegible]

"On Their Way", the forthcoming Hal Roach comedy featuring Eddi[illegible] Boland, is scheduled by Pathe for release during the week of September 11. Boland, who deals his comedy out in a smooth and subtle manner is assisted in this offering by Ethel Broadhurst and most of the Hal Roch comedy staff.

The story depicts the tribulations of a young couple who go on their vacation in a second-hand automobile, loaded down with a portable camping outfit.

At the start, Ethel Broadhurst is seen telling her friends all [illegible] the proposed camping trip, and that her husband is out at that very moment purchasing an expensive car for the occasion. Eddie Boland, the husband, in reality bids in a second-hand fliver. His wife is terribly "mortified" when he drives up to the house where her friends are assembled to see the dampers off.
