WAIT UNTIL DARK

USA 1967 – f
dir Terence Young

Music by: Henry Mancini

Music Directed/Conducted by: Henry Mancini

Music Orchestrated by: Leo Shuken, Jack Hayes

Soundtrack Personnel: Inc: Hoyt Bohannon, George Roberts, Dick Nash, trombone; Bud Shank, Ted Nash, Ronnie Lang, woodwinds; Pearl Kaufman, Ray Turner, piano; Artie

Kane, Jimmy Rowles, piano, organ; Laurindo Almeida, Bob Bain, guitar; Rollie Bundock, Abe Luboff, Joe Mondragon, Peter Mercurio, Ray Brown, acoustic double bass; Shelly Manne, Jerry Williams, drums; Frank Flynn, percussion.

Songs: Title song by Jay Livingston, Ray Evans, Henry Mancini, sung by Sue Raney. Recorded on 19th/20th June 1967 at Warner Bros. Scoring Stage, Burbank. One of two matched pianos was deliberately tuned a quarter-tone flat so that the difference in pitch would be very disturbing when the same chords were played together. Numerous contemporary sources both in the UK and in the USA claim that the end title song is performed by Bobby Darin but this appears to be an error that has been blindly copied across the years.

dir László Benedek

Music by: Leith StevensMusic Arranged by: Shorty RogersSoundtrack Personnel: Inc: Shorty Rogers, Mannie Klein, Pete Candoli, trumpet; Milt Bernhart, trombone; Bud Shank, reeds; Johnny Williams, drums.

Although this mainly source music score was composed and arranged specifically to be performed by Shorty Rogers and his Giants the studio would not allow Rogers to use his own musicians for the soundtrack; it had to be performed by Columbia's staff orchestra. But Rogers himself was allowed to solo and Bud Shank has assured this writer that he was on the sessions together with Milt Bernhart (who was already contracted to the studio) and Pete Candoli. The various commercially issued "soundtrack recordings" must therefore be viewed with some suspicion.
