"THE LOST CITY"
EPISODE #15

Story by Frederic Chapin
Produced by Ed. Martin and Webster Cullison
Photographed by Harry Neuman

1. Elyata, Princess of the "Lost City" after abduction fell into the hands of Cagga, a slaver, who determined to marry her and establish his rights to the throne of her father's kingdom. Throughout months of strife she was protected by Stanley Morton and his friend Donovan.

2. Elyata, bethrothed to Morton, but now mourned as dead.
Played by Juanita Hansen

3. Stanley Morton, an explorer, now suffering mentally because of the loss of his beloved Elyata.
Played by George Chesebro

4. Michael Donovan, his companion, who has battled by his side, and now accompanies Morton to announce Elyata's death to the King.
Donovan, played by Frank Clark

5. After months of battle, privation and suffering, to save his beloved Elyata and return her to her father's arms, Morton comes to the city of his dreams - without hope.

6. Elyata's father, King of the "Lost City" in the heart of the jungles, governing a people who are many years ahead of the times in matters of science.

7. The King's Mirror of Life.

8. Cagga, the slaver, having assured himself of Elyata's death, has come to falsely claim the right to the throne as husband of the Princess.
Cagga, played by Hector Dion

9. "I must have audience with the King."

10. To these people, thought-transmission is an old art.

11. "The King has expressed his thought to see this man."

12. "Your Majesty, I come to acquaint you with our close relationship. Months ago your daughter and I were married in the city of Hakar."

13. "It is only the Devil who deceives."

14. "I was but uttering a saying of our people. You have arrived in season to be my guest at our Feast-day."

15. Donovan, escorting the grief-plagued Morton, arrives, followed by their strange, jungle companions.

16. "The King bids you welcome."

17. "Say; where do you get that stuff?"

18. "Try that kind of talk on him."

19. "The King responds that you are to enter and enjoy the hospitality of the palace."

20. "Don't bunk us; you must be the King."

21. The following day brings about a conference in the palace ground.

22. "I get you! You're the King!"

23. "We have seen some mighty big things done since we came here. What about this mind stuff?"

24. "We have mastered the mind and it s conditions."

25. "Then tell me - what about my poor friend here?"

26. "His mind lives. It is my belief that he will recover."

27. Herso, whose tribe was slaughtered by Cagga and his men, arrives after a mission for the King.

28. But only for an instant does Morton seem to recognise the familiar countenance.

29. With murderous rage, Herso recognised his deadly enemy, Cagga.

30. "Would you destroy all my plans?"

31. The day of the fete.

32. "How can they make merry when the Princess is dead?"

33. "That which once has lived, never can die."

34. The court gathers in the evening for a vital event.

35. "I have promised to make known to my people, the successor to my throne."

36. "Glory be if it ain't the angel herself! In Heaven's name, how did ye get out of that purgatory of a burnin' cave?"

37 "After that man left me to the mercy of his murderous Arabs, and I thought all was lost -"

38. "The Black Riders of the 'Lost City' came."

39. "As ye sow, so also ye shall reap!"

40. The slaver's doom.

41. Into the burning pit.

THE END

Episode 15

THE LOST CITY

Zoolah sees Mary, the Chaimpansee in Stanley's arm - rushes to the King and tells him to give her a chance to save the baby. He promisesto do anything he asks if she succeeds. She gets Mary, the Chaimpansee and sends it up the tree. It gets the baby and brings it down safely.

The father is overjoyed, calls a family council - decides they will ride to the Lost City, make peace and be happy.

They break camp and reach the gates of the Lost City. All are welcomed with great crowds who shout with joy.

Zoolah and her sister go to their father, the King and are welcomed with prayers of gratitude. The King of the Southlanders pledges his fealty and Stanley and Michael are promised for their efforts and bravery in Zoolah's behalf.

Garbo and his cavalcade reach the gates of the Lost City.

The King of the Southlanders ride out - give battle - kill the natives, take Garbo a prisoner and ride back in triumph.

Garbo is placed in a cell - escapes and tries to kill Stanley. Michael saves Stanley, Garbo escapes - runs to the wall is cornered and leaps to his death, rather than die at his enemies' hands.

Stanley is betrothed to Zoolah and the King blesses them.

End of the Story.
