[illegible] from his club at the hour [illegible] milk wagons circula[illegible] Inside the house, his wife and mother-in-law await him with hostile faces. Fearing their wrath Boland goes around to the rear of the house and enters the kitchen door. Making his way cautiously, he stumbles over the cat and tumbles down the cellar stairs into the basement. As soon as he recovers himself, his hand finds a large iron ring in the floor of the cellar, and pulling on it, a trapdoor, with stairs leading downward is disclosed. He goes below and finds himself in the land of Arabian Nights, with beautiful girls to do his bidding. The girls, seeing the opening leading to the trapdoor, climb the stairs, much to Boland's consternation. Fearing that his wife willdiscover them he endeavors to hide them in the kitchen. A seriesof uproarious incidents follow which lead to an astonishing surprise finish.
