"Around Corners"

Two-reel Century Comedy

Starring BROWNIE, the Wonder Dog

BROWNIE is hounded eternally by a sneaky dog-catcher, and has the time of his young life getting away from this wise man. He even gets in trouble with big Teddy the Dane, when he steals the bone that rightfully belongs to Teddy. The dog-catcher is also trying to get Brownie.

After several narrow escapes from capture our friend Brownie strikes up an acquaintance with Bud the detective. He proves to Bud he is a "dog-gone" good detective. The two are just in time to come across a safe-robber, but Brownie spills the beans when he runs off with the bomb that was to be used to open a safe. After giving the police force the scare of its life, he finishes the day by blowing up the dog-catcher, and ending it all by burying him under the avalanche of dirt the bamb has caused. Thus Brownie works out his destiny, and again has his unmolested freedom.
