"HUR... HUTCH
©CIL 17158 Epis... #3 "Double Crossed."

The episode opens with Hutch and Nancy captured by the natives, and John Brinkley and his daughter Bella held captives by Marlow and Tigerly aboard the yacht. Hutch wins the confidence of the natives by offering to lead them to the yacht and effect the rescue of Brinkley. This is done in a most exciting manner, but Hutch also brings Ann Haviland along, after she leads him to believe that she no longer sides with Marlow.

Hutch hides the scarf in his hut, and, while walking with Nancy, Ann enters the hut and takes the scarf from its hiding place. Before leaving the yacht she had promised to secure it and place it in Tigerly's hands. Hutch returns and missing the scarf, suspects Ann. He and Nancy start out in pursuit of her, finding her lying unconscious in the sands. Tigerly's footprints are discovered, and Hutch and Nancy leave Ann, hoping to overtake their enemy. The chase leads through many perilous places, and Hutch has almost caught up with Tigerly when an avalanche of sand starts down the mountainside and he and Nancy are swept headlong with it.
