"Ice Box Pirates"

One-Reel Star Comedy

THE refreshment committee of the icemen's picnic canvasses the neighborhood for beer for the outing. Their first sally results in being driven away by a man with a gun. By a ruse, they sneak back into his house and clean out his cellar ice-box. Taking the home-brew to the picnic, they are surprised to find a bottle of beer doesn't constitute an introduction to a pretty girl.

After lunch they go down to the beach and play "beach crap" with huge dice for the privilege of kissing the prettiest girl. Tiring of this, they procure jobs as life savers. While waiting for some one to drown, they start a flirtation with a veiled girl who turns out to be colored. Another flirtation results disastrously, as one of the would-be life savers sticks his beach umbrella into the stomach of the sand-buried husband of the girl with whom he is trying to flirt.

To impress another good looking girl, they stage a phoney drowning. The intended rescuer gets cold feet at the last moment and almost lets his pal drown. A policeman dashes to the rescue, but the four-flushing life saver manages to get credit for the heroic rescue, and the comedy ends happily.
