The comedy tells the story of [illegible] the detective, a[illegible] his hopeless love for Alice Weston, a member [illegible] "Oh Joy" musical comedy company. Ernie makes his last proposal and is turned down by the girl as the show is about to leave for the road. After she has left, his boss calls him up and instructs him to shadow a certain man in the same show. Ernie starts out and uses various disguises in his work, but the male members of the company are all aware that he is a detective, and wonder which one of them he is after. Finally one of them decides to bring an end to Ernie's work and beard him in his den. Both become friendly after the "unbearding" and Ernie is invited around to the theatre. As he stands in the wings he encounters Alice and once more starts his proposals. By an accident he is thrust upon the stage during one of the musical numbers and a mouse runs up his pant leg. In trying to shake the mouse out, Ernie performs such an original dance that the manager of the show gives him a contract, and he and Alice are united forever.
