©CL 17341 TRY TRY AGAIN

DEC 10 1921

By HAL ROACH.

The troubles all started with the weekly arrival of the installment man. He wanted his money -- or his goods. And, when the money was not forthcoming, he proceeded to clean up.

When the glaring headlines in the Newspaper proclaim a $500 will be the reward for the winner of a Beauty Contest, friend husband sees a ray of hope. His wife is certainly some beauty -- but then to get a suitable photograph. A number of scenes follow in the many humorous incidents that occur and finally after every resort has been tried, a snapshot is procured. The picture is hastened to the Newspaper office, and with the winning of the prize, comes happiness thereafter.
