©CUL 17342 HURRICANE HUTCH- Ep. 13 "Neck and Neck"

DEC 10 1921

The chapter opens showing Hutch rescuing Nancy from Marlow and Tigerly. Returning to Nancy's they find Brinkley and his daughter Bella. Hutch entrusts the scarf to Brinkley, requesting him to decode it. The old man retires to his room to study out the mysterious lettering. Meanwhile, Marlow and Ann Haviland anxiously await the arrival of Tigerly. He soon appears with the scarf which he obtained by force from Brinkley. Tigerly warns them that Brinkley is liable to arrive any moment for the scarf, and Hutch is apt to break in on them as well.

The trio are soon rewarded as Brinkley steals quietly into the house and falls into their hands. A free-for-all fight occurs, and as it is at its height, Hutch and Nancy appear on the scene. In the excitement, Brinkley outwits them all by escaping with the scarf. The next day Brinkley cannot be found, but Hutch learns that he is in hiding at a small town on the coast. Marlow gets the same information. Both Hutch with Nancy, and Tigerly with Ann, start for Point Seabreeze to attempt to regain the scarf. Both couples meet on the road and a series of rapid-fire thrills occur leading up to a real hair-raising climax.
