Christiane de CHAMARANDE who is very fond of her husband HUBERT is terribly annoyed to be neglected by him. She confides her sorrow to her best friend Suzanne de RIEUX, who imagines at once a trick which must bring back the unfaithful husband.
One day HUBERT receives a mysterious note inviting him to a fancy ball. He goes to this fancy ball where he meets a lovely Colombine who is but Suzanne.
The artful young lady conquers HUBERT'S heart and accepts to let him come to her home but only if he consents to be blindfolded. HUBERT agrees and as soon as he has the bandage puts over his eyes, it is his own wife, dressed exactly like Suzanne, who takes him to his home.
As soon as the bandage is taken off his eyes, happiness comes back in the house, for HUBERT understands that his wife is really the nicest of all.
