Episode #11

Jim dives into the water and leads the canoe, with Nadine in it, to safety. Arriving at the hunting lodge they explain their mission to Mrs. Kent, who promises to aid them. While one of her servants is bringing up the box with the third Buddha from the express office, Reynolds accosts him and tries to bribe him to give up the box. Meanwhile the Shifting Shadow slips up and, unseen, takes the bust from its box, replacing the lid. The servant accepts the bribe and delivers the box to Reynolds.

Reynolds, discovering later that he has been tricked, sneaks to the house and sees Jim break the Buddha, which has been given him by his mysterious ally, and get the map. Reynolds starts a fire in the haystack to divert attention. Jim and Nadine rush out, are attacked by Reynolds and an accomplice, and tied. Jim overhears Reynolds tell his plans to his aide. Nadine manages to release herself and Jim and they start in pursuit of Reynolds. A terrible forest fire, started by the burning haystack, threatens to overtake them.
