" WHAT NEXT? "

SYNOPSIS

BROADWAY COMEDY

Eddie is a cub reporter in a newspaper office but he has failed to bring in a story, and so he is told that he has one day more in which to make good. He is encouraged to persevere by his sweetheart, the stenographer, who promises to marry him if he makes good. Eddie sallies forth and trails several likely looking subjects for making copy from, but in each case discovers that the alarming looking people he trails are actually innocent of wrong doing. However, when the day is nearly done, Eddie stumbles on a criminal going through the third degree, and overhears him make confession of his guilt. Eddie telephones through to his office and arrives there exactly on the strike of five and types his story which is a beat. Vera and he are married in the office and Eddie holds his job.
