©CL 17598C

The episode opens with the rescue of Ruth by the White Rider from death in the sand cave. He takes her from his hide-out and brings her back to Phil Stanton, who has been searching for her. The two young people then return to the ranch house where Loomis and Julia Wells are surprised to see both return safely. A plot is hatched to secure Ruth's amulet, and as Julia already has the Wampum Belt, Stone Ear is sent for to decode the figures as soon as their plans are carried out.

The plot fails, but Ruth, still without the Wampum Belt, decides to take the stage coach that morning for the headquarters of the Canyon Indians, and Phil insists upon accompanying her. Loomis draws the stage driver aside and bribes him to upset the stage and delay the journey. The driver performs the task as the stage is crossing a bridge over a small stream, but no one is hurt. Ruth and Phil then hire an automobile to continue the journey, much to the chagrin of the cow-punchers, who leap upon their horses, determined to headit off. As something is wrong with the machine, the cowboys have little difficulty in overtaking it, and a fight is staged in which Ruth loses control of the car and it plunges over the ledge and down the side of a steep hill.
