©CL 17675 WHITE EAGLE #13 - "The Clash of the Clans"

The episode opens with Ruth rescued from her imprisonment at San Mario by the White Rider. She returns to the ranch house, much to the surprise of her enemies, Loomis and Julia Wells, and learns that Phil has left for the Golden Canyon, believing her to be a captive there. The young man had quite a narrow escape himself, as the White Rider rescued him from the vault of the bank in San Mario, where he had secured the Sacred Wampum. Ruth insists upon going to the canyon, as she fears for Phil's safety, and the entire party leaves with her.

When the girl reaches the Indians' headquarters, she is cheered by the two tribes but greeted very coldly by Gray Wolf. The chieftain tells her that Phil is locked up in the dungeon, and Ruth insists upon seeing him. She is taken below, and the treacherous Gray Wolf orders her to be locked in with Phil. The young man thrusts the Sacred Wampum in Ruth's hand, which forces the Indians to release her. The girl, thoroughly angered by the action of Gray Wolf determines to tell of his treachery to the tribes. She eludes her enemies and rushes into the council chamber. Her disclosure is greeted with cries of anger, and the two tribes come to a final clash, leading to the exciting climax of the episode.
