Oml 17676 WHITE EAGLE #14 - "The Pivoted Rock".

The chapter opens showing the rescue of Ruth from the rope bridge by Phil Stanton. Both the young man and the White Rider beg her to leave the canyon and return to civilization, but she declares she will not leave until her mission is fulfilled. As they are about to leave for the ranch they receive word that Stone Ear is awaiting them to decode the Wampum and amulet, and overjoyed they hurry to meet her, unmindful of the fact that it is another trick of Jim Loomis. Both soon arrive at the ranch and find Stone Ear. As they are about to greet her, Loomis and Henley stop them.

Loomis commands Stone Ear to decode the Wampum belt, but the old squaw refuses, saying that she can only disclose the secret to Princess White Eagle--Ruth. Henley draws Loomis aside for a moment and then both leave the room. Once outside, Henley takes Loomis upstairs where there is a hole in the floor and he can look down and learn the code. Stone Ear is about to disclose the secret when the White Rider gallops up with a group of cowpunchers. They enter the ranch and help Ruth and Phil escape, taking Stone Ear with them. A chase follows to the Golden Canyon, where a fierce fight takes place at the [illegible] The climax shows Ruth lying prostrate [illegible] descends into [illegible] the pivoted rock which [illegible] for the pursuers.
