"THE ADVENTURES OF ROBINSON CRUSOE"

MAR 31 1922

Episode 2

"Shipwrecked"

Crusoe fights with Black Tom and the crew over the pirate flag. Escaping the crew, Robinson and his ally, Peg-Leg, barricade themselves in the forecastle; but are overpowered and put i irons. A great storm suddenly comes up and the crew desert the ship, leaving Crusoe, Peg-Leg and a dog aboard the vessel.

Crusoe manages to extricate Peg-Leg and himself from their bonds as the ship is cast on the rocks of an apparently deserted island. Peg-Leg is lost overboard and Crusoe and the dog manage to get ashore. Later Crsuoe constructs a raft and ferries some of the ship's stores ashore.

He finds a goat, a well, and some other necessities and manages to shift for himself with considerable ingenuity. He k erects a crude cross which serves him as a calendar, sews some garments from skins of animals he is able to trap and, in short, makes the best of his unfortunate lot. At the end of fifteen years, he is astonished to find a footprint on the sand.
