"THE RUNAWAY CAR"

Locked in the hold of a ship being fumigated with deadly gas, "Hutch" bores holes in the side of the vessel, and they crawl through to safety.

In a fight with Mott, "Hutch" chases him to the rigging. On the end of the yard arm they fight fiercely. "Hutch" forces information from him, and to save time, dives into the river.

Dariel is driving a car with a broken brake. Up hill and down, the car reels dangerously. "Hutch" chases on a motorcycle, cutting across fields and through fences. He grabs her from the car just before it turns over.

"Hutch," on a motorcycle, leaps a wide gap between dock and ferry, which has already left its slip.

Dariel climbs down the side of the ship to overlook repairs. Unaware of her presence, the floating fenders are withdrawn and the mooring ropes are tightened, drawing the ship closer to the dock. "Hutch," seeing Dariel's danger, climbs down the ladder to her. Dariel climbs under the dock to safety, but is grabbed by the villain and placed on a barge. "Hutch's" clothes catch on a spike and he is unable to move in any direction as he is slowly crushed between boat and dock.
