"Hutch," caught between dock and ship, falls into the water and swims under the ship, coming out on the other side.

A terrific fight and a thrilling chase takes place between "Hutch" and Mott in the train yards. "Hutch" leaps from one moving train to another. Locked in each other's arms, "Hutch" and Mott roll under a moving freight car. Mott hangs onto the end of a moving car and "Hutch," hanging onto him, is dragged along the ties. Fighting on a car on a pier, both fall into the river. "Hutch" is the victor of their battle under water.

To catch the barge on which Dariel is imprisoned, "Hutch" leaps a train, jumps from it to a bridge and leaps from it into the river, climbing aboard the barge and battling with its captain before rescuing the girl.

Mott and "Hutch" fight in a ship's engine room. "Hutch" falls across an open grating and spans the opening. Then a huge steel bar falls across his back.
