BROADWAY COMEDY SYNOPSIS

"BUT A BUTLER"

Eddie Barry, happily married to Vera Reynolds receives a visit from an old gentleman and his son, the latter being deputed to marry Vera.

In an attempt to assure that the old gentleman's money stays in the family, Eddie agrees for the time being to pose as Vera's butler.

The old gentleman's son makes strong love to Vera, much to Eddie's displeasure and there is to be a wedding between the son and Vera but Eddie thinks of a plan to defeat this scheme. He disguises himself as a woman so that when the clergyman arrives, a marriage is set between the young man and Eddie in female garb. Complications become so serious that finally word is sent to a local sanitarium that there are two nuts on the premises in the persons of the old gentleman and his son. The guards arrive and take them away leaving Eddie and Vera in their married bliss, undisturbed by the visit of inconvenient relatives.
