DO ME A FAVOR.

By Hal E. Roach.

APR 27 '22

When half of the world sleeps indoors, the other half sleeps on the wing. A guardian of the police (a belated cop) is making his rounds when commotion in a nearby apartment arouses his attention.

A man partially clad, and with dishevelled hair dashes from the apartment. The cop and a late stroller join in the chase, pursue and overtake him back to the woman who is looking down from the window, for results. On her earnest plea for assistance, they endeavored by words or kind actions, and also other things, to restore the captured one to his sane state of mind. Somewhat like a pampered child, he is coaxed and both the cop and the stroller think they have done excellently well; but are very much surprised and disfitted when they learn that all their efforts have been in behalf of a high priced butler who was in a tempermental state.

They will probably know better next time and run in other directions when a similar occasion arises.
