FAIRBANKS HOUSE
Dedham, Massachusetts

Owner: Fairbanks Family Association

Date of Erection: c.1636 et seq.

Architect: Unknown

Builder: Unknown

Present Condition: Good

Materials of Construction: Stone foundation, frame structure.

Other Existing Records:

Additional Data: This is perhaps the earliest and most important house of the 17th century standing in Massachusetts. It has suffered from practically no detrimental alterations except the removal of the original casement windows many of which, however, are preserved in the house. It retains many fine open timber ceilings, very rare moulded sheathing and weatherboarded wainscot.
