"RIDIN' THROUGH"

Two-Reel Western

Starring ART ACORD

PRIVATE LARRY CASSIDY sees his pal Malone trapped by a band of smugglers. The smugglers see him coming and ride away. Malone tells Cassidy who the men are and dies.

Grant Freeman, a physician, is at the head of the gang. He has almost cured Louis Fachard, who has charge of the trading station. Cassidy and Freeman are both in love with Fleurette, Fachard's pretty daughter.

The gang intend to make a big haul that night, so they have to get Cassidy out of the way. He is lured by a false note and trapped. His horse opens the cord that binds him and after locking up the men he goes after Fachard. Fachard has induced Fleurette to go to the States with him. Cassidy reads the note which Fleurette has written and after taking a hazardous short cut, he overtakes Fleurette and Fachard. Cassidy gets his reward when Fleurette tells him she loves him.
