THE TIMBER QUEEN #11
"The Runaway Engine"
