LEATHERSTOCKING.

CHAPTER TWO -- "THE SCARLET TRAIL"

Briarthorn, with Wah-ta-wah captive, arrived at the Huron Camp on Glimmerglass Lake seeking a brave's place in the tribe. While they wondered what was detaining the Lynx, that Huron brave was looting the treasure chest of Hutter, which contained many relics of his pirate days. Judith, innocent of a marauder on board Muskrat Castle, entered the room and gave a shriek that brought the others just as the Lynx leaped out the window with a jewel casket, Hutter's most priceless possession, the contents of which were known only to himself. "Huron scalps shall pay for this!" said Hutter and that night he and Hurry Harry went ashore to raid theHuron camp, but the Hurons were prepared and took the white men prisoners.
