"THE LITTLE SAVAGE"

Two-Reel Universal Western
Starring PETE MORRISON

TED mistakes Dot, dressed in overalls, for a boy, and warns her not to trespass on his land. She retaliates and threatens to shoot any one who invades he rproperty, later enforcing her threat by driving off at the point of a gun some men Ted has sent to destroy a bridge across the creek separating the ranches. Ted complains to Dave Marshall, Dot's father, about "the Marshall kid," meets her as a girl and still ignorant of her identity, falls in love with her.

Travers, her effete suitor, is cut out by Ted and seeks revenge. While Ted is practicing proposing to a tree stump in lieu of Dot, Traver's henchmen set upon the love-sick swain. He gets the better of his assailants and throws Travers in the creek. He sees "the Marshall kid" and is about to spank "him," when he discovers "he's" a girl. He decides to try to tame Dot by matrimony instead.
