LIZZIES OF THE FIELD

By Mack Sennett

A big money prize inthe FREE FOR ALL automobile road race attracts Billy Bevan and his side partner to enter as competitors. While they have not got the fastest car in the race, both drivers have a lot of horse-sense and a knowledge of short cuts which enable them to overcome the majority of their speedy rivals. The race is a dramatic farce from start to finish and the big thrill comes when Bevan's car on becoming unmanageable during the last mile of the race, shoots down a steep incline and across a chasm landing a wreck on the opposite bank but across the finish line.
