Synopsis of Mack Sennett Comedy
"Galloping Bungalows"

As a prize for having the most beautiful mustache in town, the Dandy wins the hand of a beautiful heiress, as the newspapers calls her. He finds, however, that he has won the heiress's mother. He buys a beach bungalow, which is largely under water at high tide, so he hitches a team of horses to it to move it. In the bungalow at the time are his bride and the villain. While being moved, the bungalow catches fire and the horses run away. The fire department responds and chases the runaway fire, the firemen doing some hair-raising stunts in their attempt to erect their aerial ladder. By the time the horses are stopped, the fire is out, and all ends happily.
