Happy Hooligan in

A Romance of 76.

Happy is telling his admiring friends the story of the photograph of a beautiful girl he carries in his pocket. When he was a young man he was tall, handsome and debonair. They are engaged and elope. After exciting adventures with highwaymen, they arrive at the parsonage, and while Happy goes to get the preacher the horse runs away, throwing the lady into the lap of sleeping Gloomy Gus. Gus is her hero and they are married by a justice of the peace just as Happy comes along. He is heart broken. Wh le telling the story Gus comes around the corner and hearing it knocks Hooligan flat for the part he played in causing him to get married.
