RE ASE T-1345- "IN OLD GRANADA" Release Date- December 18th,

DEC 14 192

"In Old Granada" is a visit to the Spanish city of today which was the great Moorish Capital of King Boabdil the last of the Moorish monarchs who ruled in Spain, until defeated and driven forth by the Christian armies of Ferdinand and Isabella in 1492, in the very year when Columbus was discovering America. This little "Easy-Chair-Journey" gives glimpses of the daily life of the Spanish citizens and of the picturesque Gypsy surburbanites,-- architectural studies of the wonderful courts of the far-famed Alhambra,-- exquisite visions of famous gardens and vistas of the city itself. These round out a pleasing series of impressions of one of the most celebrated centres of art and history in Spain.
