DESCRIPTION -"FUN from the PRESS"

MAR 21 '23

Dear Sir;-

The title of this motion picture to which this application for registry refers to is, "FUN from the PRESS", produced by The Literary Digest, registered by Funk & Wagnalls Co., New York.

The description of the film is in the form of a cartoon showing two gnomes diving from spring-boards into a supposed ocean of newspapers and from the result of their dive the words, "FUN from the PRESS" appears animated, word by word on the screen. When these words have appeared, the newspapers fade out and the words, "Produced by The Literary Digest" fade in and following that,"W.W.Hodkinson Corporation, Distributors, copyright 1923, by Funk & Wagnalls Co.

The above description is for the main title exclusively and following thereafter are pithy paragraphs, topics in brief, jokes, anecdotes, etc., that are culled from newspapers of all parts of the country.

Yours very truly,
THE LITERARY DIGEST
W. W. Hodkinson
Motion Picture Department.
