Re: Joseph Cammer, No. 34897

The following is a short description of the animated cartoon entitled "ALADDIN, OR THE WONDERFUL LAMP", by Joseph Cammer, the application having been forwarded to your office Aug. 14, 1923.

"Aladdin, or the Wonderful Lamp", is a story from the Tales of Arabian Nights of a little boy who succumbs to the ingenious power of a wicked magician in quest of a wonderful lamp that has the power of enabling the possessor to [illegible] whatever he wishes through the medium of a Genii, and the subsequent victory of the boy Aladdin who outwits the Magician and gains the lamp for his own purpose, with the result that all his desires are realized, ending the story with Aladdin gaining the favor of a powerful Sultan and the marrying of his daughter.

Respectfully,

Edmund A. Strause
