BARRIER BUSTERS.

1.(3) Make your own guess on this turn.

2.(4) No wonder the "Weaker Sex" is on the way!

3.(7) The women are crashing through the old male barriers at both work and play. Invermere,B.C.

4.(10) Guiding is rough work. Yet Madeline Turner (on the left) is a professional guide in the Canadian Rockies.

5.(6) She picked her job in the wilderness and she knows how to handle it.

6.(3) A life too rough for most men -

7.(7) Today there are few male barriers left which the girls haven't broken down. Hollywood, Cal.

8.(6) Balle Bennett, stage and screen star, trains as hard as any male.

9.(3) Her daily twenty is full of pep.

10.(3) Try this on your waistline.

11.(5) No sport can crowd the modern girl out of competition.

12.(6) Rowing is hard work but it doesn't belong to man alone. Springfield, Mass.

13.(3) No barrier here -

14.(5) A race like this once belongs to man alone. Penn Relays, Phila.

15.(5) But the old barrier has become a wash-out. Sargent School Camp, Vt.

16.(5) Hurdle racing, not long ago, had the ladies checked out.

17.(3) Not today, Not by a dozen jumps!

18.(4) Flying finishes were once all male thrills.

19.(3) But here's the same in bloomers -

20.(4) The broad jump calls for springy muscles.

21.(5) But such muscles are no longer just masculine anatomy.

22.(5) The male once had the high jump all to himself.

23.(5) But the ladies have found high flying suits their style.

BARRIER BUSTERS.

24.(3) Putting the shot?

25.(3) Why not?

26.(3) The hammer ought to stop 'em.

27.(4) But the female substitute is "hurl Ball".

28.(3) Howtabout the javelin?

29.(3) Nothing to it. Just as easy.

30.(3) Heads up. Look out.

31.(5) Soccer is one of the sports for men.
Navy at Penn State.

32.(4) But even here the girls have broken through.

33.(3) Why grandmother gets a shock-

34.(4) Each sport has its super men.
Forest Hills, L.I.

35.(5) Vincent Richards, at twenty-two, is one of the stars.

36.(7) Once more the barriers fail. For sport also has its super women. Berkley, Cal.

37.(4) Helen Wills is a tennis marvel at twenty.

38.(5) She has held almost as many titles as Tilden.

39.(4) Few men can give her an even fight.

40.(4) All the strokes in the game are hers.

41.(3) Speed, Form and Power.

42.(3) And a stout fighting heart.

43.(12) Few are the barriers left today. From now on man must share his kingdom of fame with the sex that he once took out to the dance.

44.(3) THE END.
