THE GIRL THAT TOOK MY EYE.

Words by JERRY COHAN. Music by W. A. HUNTLEY.

Moderato.

PIANO.

As I was walk - ing down the street the o - ther af - ter - noon; Lit
I watch'd her as she cross'd the street, my heart was all a flame; She I ask'd her if she would be mine, as we stood at the door; She my ci - gar, put on my kids, In front of a sa - loon.

quick - ly waved her handkerchief, Of course I did the same.
said she had no ob - jec - tions, But her pa - rents they were poor.

A vi - sion float - ed past my sight Which caus'd the dust to fly; 'Twas the
In a moment I was at her side, Your pardon, Miss said I, If But tri - fles like that I must never mind, To win her I must try; And if pretti - est girl I ev - er saw, The girl that took my eye.

I am bold pray tell me so, But then you took my eye.
I do I'll in - tro - duce to you, The girl that took my eye.

CHORUS.

She was so fair, I do de - clare, I feel so queer, When ever I am near, That pretty lit-tle girl that took my eye.
