RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO THE MORGAN SISTERS
JENNIE AND ANNIE

WHEN THE BIRDS HAVE GONE TO SLEEP

A Beautiful

SONG and CHORUS

Words by

ARTHUR W. FRENCH.

Music by

Wm A. HUNTLEY ESQ.

(Composer of JUST TO PLEASE THE BOYS)

Published by F.W. HELMICK Cincinnati, O.

No 136 WEST FOURTH ST.

COPYRIGHTED 1878 BY F.W. HELMICK

"WHEN THE BIRDS HAVE GONE TO SLEEP."

Words by ARTHUR W. FRENCH. Music by WILLIAM A. HUNTLEY.

MODERATO.

FLUTE

echo!

PIANO

Ritard.

Tempo.

rit.

Con Espress.

FLUTE

VOICE

1. When the ros - es bud and blossom, By the rip-pling riv - er
2. How I long to hear you whisper, All the sto ry of our

PIANO

Copyright, 1878, by F. W. Helmick.—4.

side, Where they gen-tly nod and lis-ten,
love, With no-bod-y ve-ry near us,

To the mu-sic of the tide. While the ear-ly stars are Save the leaf-lets up a-bove. Sweet - est words to thee ad - shin-ing, In the far-off a-zure deep,

dressing, Lov - ing arms a-round me creep,

Come to meet me dearest darling, When the birds have gone to sleep.
Could we ev-er-more thus linger, When the birds have gone to sleep.

CHORUS.

FLUTE, Play Air.

Sopr.

Come to meet me dearest darling, Where the shadows softly creep,

Alto.

Tenor.

Come to meet me dearest darling, Where the shadows softly creep,

Bass.

Piano.

In the calm and peaceful twilight, When the birds have gone to sleep,

sleep, have gone to sleep.

In the calm and peaceful twilight, When the birds have gone to sleep.

have gone to sleep.

sleep, have gone to sleep.

FLUTE.