Special Notices.

☞ Card.—In consequence of the various articles which have recently appeared in the public prints, the DIRECTORS of the PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP COMPANY deem it incumbent on them to announce that they have not authorized any combination with any party for the purpose of establishing higher rates of freight and passage money between the Atlantic ports and California—nor do they contemplate any such combination—their purpose being to confine their attention solely to their own business, and to the transportation of passengers and specie in the safest and cheapest manner practicable. The time consumed by land carriage across the Isthmus of Panama has been lengthened by the greatly increased bulk of the mails and treasure necessary for the safeguard of the specie. A remedy for this will be provided by the early completion of the Panama Railroad, and also this consequent saving of time the Directors have always anticipated a reduction in cost of freight and passage between California and Atlantic ports. By order of the Board of Directors,
New-York, July 1, 1853. WM. H. DAVIDGE, Secretary.

☞ A Card.—In order to correct any unfavorable impression that may have been produced by the publication of a Police Report, giving an account of the arrest of certain parties for carrying on gambling operations on the premises occupied by me, in company with Messrs. Moore & Mann, as a Saloon and Circus, I would state, and the statement is susceptible of the strongest proof, that the parties were engaged in room in question engaged for the purpose of opening a Daguerrian Gallery therein, and I was under the impression that it was to be used for such purpose. I never knew, until the arrest of the parties, that any gambling operations was there, or that gambling was carried on at all. I have never and never will encourage any illegal or immoral practices whatever in any establishment over which I have any control; and I trust that the reputation I have established as a law-abiding man during a residence in this city of over 10 years, is a sufficient refutation of any scandalous reports to the contrary.
CORPORAL THOMPSON.
[The firm of Moore, Thompson & Mann, proprietors of the Washington Circus and Saloon.

☞ New-York Young Men's Christian Association.—Regular Monthly Meeting will be held on MONDAY EVENING, 18 inst., at 8 o'clock, at the rooms of the Stuyvesant Institute, No. 656 Broadway. Young men generally are invited to attend.

The doors will open at 7 o'clock. The Panorama will commence moving at 8.
Admission 50 cents; Children 25 cents.
In presenting this work to the public, Mr. Frankenstein would state that it has been nearly three years in the painting. The pictures from which it is painted were sketched between one and two hundred in number, and were painted on the spot, at different periods since 1844—comprising a space of nine years—and display the great Cataract in the various and marked changes it has undergone during that time. Besides his own labors, he was the past year assisted in taking the views by his brothers George L. and Gustavus Frankenstein.
The views extend from Grand Island, three miles above the Falls, to Lake Ontario, and represent the placid river above the Rapids—the Rapids and Cataract from all points—the boisterous "Cave of the Winds" behind the American Fall, which exhibits the remarkable phenomenon of a rainbow forming a complete circle—the interior of the Horse-shoe Fall, to "Terrapin Rock"—the Suspension Bridge as well as entire Rapids, with its decorations of countless icicles. The "Ice-Bridge"—the quiet mirror-water, two miles below the Falls—the tremendous Rapids between the Falls and Whirlpool—the Whirlpool—the Suspension Bridges at Bellevue and Lewistown—a distant view of Lake Ontario, &c.
They were painted during all the seasons of the year and under all circumstances. In the fresh, green spring; in the heat of summer; in the gorgeous beauty of autumn, and in the dazzling splendor of winter. From the cool sunrise to the brilliant sunset; by the mysterious and solemn moonlight; in the raging storm; by the illumination of a fire, &c.
Mr. Frankenstein has endeavored to produce a work in keeping with his great subject. He has shrunk from no labor or exposure, and spared no expense to make it all it should be. The gratification it gave to all who saw it during its progress, gives him reason to think he has not labored in vain, and that it will prove a source of pleasure and instruction to the public.

BANVARD'S HOLY LAND.—Reopened at the GEORAMA, No. 596 Broadway, with extensive additions. This magnificent Painting presents a minute detail of the sacred localities mentioned in the Bible, and all the holy places now in dispute between the Emperors of France and Russia, including the Church of the Nativity at Bethlehem, and the area of Solomon's Temple. Exhibited every evening, and Wednesday and Saturday afternoons at 3 o'clock, and at 8 o'clock in the evening. Admission 25 cts. Reserved Seats 50 cts. Children half price.

GREAT ATTRACTION—Free Concerts at the Ottendorfer Cottage, Hoboken, by Noll's celebrated Band, of sixteen performers, every MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY AFTERNOON, at 3 o'clock. Should the weather prove unfavorable, the concert will take place the next fair day.

MAZE GARDEN—Situated on 5th av., opposite the entrance to the Croton Reservoir, and in the vicinity of the Crystal Palace.
The Garden occupies two acres of ground, covered with a large growth of deciduous and evergreen trees and shrubs, adorned with Arbors, Fountains, and Vases, intersected by serpentine walks, and surrounded by grassy slopes—effectively combining the beauties of Nature and Art. In the main building upon the premises are two fine Refreshment Saloons, commodious Piazzas, and a LADIES' TOILET-ROOM, with constant attendants.
The great attractive feature of the Garden, is the MAZE, or LABYRINTH. This is constructed after the plan of the celebrated one in Hampton Court, London, formed in the early part of King William's reign, and is the only one in this country. Its intricacies will be a source of great amusement and enjoyment.
The Proprietors would also respectfully inform the citizens of New-York, as well as strangers visiting the city, during the "Exhibition of the Industry of All Nations," that they have completed arrangements which will enable them to serve the best to ladies and gentlemen who may honor the Maze Garden with their patronage. Having made arrangements with Mr. BENJAMIN M. BEIARE, (the eminent confectioner of the Capitol City—Albany—whose celebrity for the finest Cream, Ices, and Confectionery, is so well known in this country,) for some of the best artizans from his establishment, they feel assured that, with the prompt attendance of good waiters, they will give full satisfaction to their patrons.
CREAM, ICES, AND OTHER REFRESHMENTS,
NO SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS OR INTOXICATING BEVERAGES WILL BE SERVED.
Open EVERY DAY, from 6 A. M. until sunset.
☞ The Fifth-av., Madison-av, and Fortieth-st. Stages pass on three sides of the Garden, and the Sixth-av. Cars are within two minutes' walk.
☞ Entrance to the Garden FREE. MITCHELL & Co.

SPIRITUAL RAPPING and WRITING.—Citizens and strangers wishing to witness these manifestations can do so by calling at MRS. COAN'S room, No. 362 Broadway. Sittings daily from 9 to 11 A. M., and from 3 to 6 and 8 to 10 P. M. Admission, 50 cents.
P. S.—Arrangements for private sittings can be made by applying as above.

MORE TESTIMONY.
From Rev. GEORGE B. CHEEVER, Church of the Puritans, (Congregational,) Union-place.
Messrs. DEWITT & DAVENPORT:—I am glad of the publication of the "Lectures of Gavazzi." It makes a book of important facts, and in a pleasant style. The public will be surprised that a work so rare as not to enjoy the privilege of hearing these lectures in word, all or a little, will express fear and shame at the dangers of scoring up a natural enemy, that there are here no appeals to sectarianism, no bigotry, no intolerance of conscience, no violence, but merely, true, plain, and earnest facts, delivered in a kind, and a hearty love of freedom. There is no display of learning, no attempt at eloquence, but have considered it, I believe, a plain, plain, strong, true, and, should it come in portable shape, a useful work. The author is an eyewitness and experienced. The volume is such a powerful and truthful development of Popery, that I hope it will be spread abroad far and wide throughout the country. GEORGE B. CHEEVER.
As a testimony to the correctness with which the reports made The Independent says, at the close of a long editorial:
"He has had great audiences in this country, and the fourteen or fifty reports of his lectures have had wide circulation. In the country, before us, from the press of Messrs Dewitt and Davenport, these reports are revised, enlarged and pruned, and thus put in a form more suitable to permanent preservation. The book is neatly, cheaply, or rather, the impression made by Romanism on the who has lived in it, and tried its quality. Are witness and a monitor, if not as a guide, we may accept Gavazzi."
The Boston Press thus speaks:
OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.
"This work will be read with interest by all—with pleasure by most Protestants. The bold, keen, brilliant and forcible style cannot fail to command attention and admiration. The Paine is glorious, even in print." [Boston Bee.
"We confess, also, to an intense curiosity to read the Lectures which have excited such grave consequences, and we feel that their character has not been overrated. They are exceedingly pungent." [Boston Mail.
"This work will be likely to attract the attention of a universe of in the Romish Controversy." [Boston Transcript.
"This book is already sufficiently advertised by the persecutions and mobs gotten up against him by his Catholic opponents. Its sale would never require the extreme if Father Gavazzi did not not some home truths which they would never wish spread before the public." [Olive Branch (Boston).
"No one can read the volume without being convinced that Gavazzi has great tact and ability as a popular orator and lecturer." [Christian Intelligencer.
Hear the Sunday papers:
"These Lectures, from the excitement they have created and the fatal consequences to which they have led will be sought for as an infallible test of the sincerity of the Romish Church." [Sunday Times.
"The Publishers at the timely work have rendered an important and acceptable service to the Protestant public by the publication of a full report of Father Gavazzi Lectures. We cannot be forgetful of the war in precisions for this book, which is rently not up a cheap price. Neither Dewitt and Davenport are unskilled in the views to publishers of popular works of a Pseudo-Christ character which will give them an enviable position among American publishers." [Sunday Courier.
"They are admirably reported and splendidly printed. There will be, of course, a tremendous curiosity to read the Lectures which have created so much excitement, and that have led to mobocracy and murder." [Sunday Mercury.
"Curiosity will be on tiptoe to get hold of these wonderful Lectures, we, in fact, we cannot say, extremely reported and with unequaled accuracy." [Sunday Dispatch.
"It is a book that cannot fail to interest all, and will be generally read." [Newark Daily Advertiser.

FRANK FARLEIGH'S NEW BOOK
Three Editions sold in Three Weeks.
TWENTY THOUSAND COPIES SOLD.
THIRD EDITION NOW READY.
HARRY COVERDALE'S COURTSHIP,
AND WHAT CAME OF IT.
By the author of "Frank Farleigh," "Lewis Arundel," &c. &c.
BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED.
Paper, 50 cents. Handsomely bound in cloth, 75 cents.
This beautiful romance, by the most pleasing and popular author of the present day, has received, unsolicited, numerous high literary notices from the Press, a few of which we give below.
To secure a certain supply from the first edition, the Trade are advised to send in their orders immediately.
NOTICES OF THE PRESS:
HARRY COVERDALE'S COURTSHIP AND WHAT CAME OF IT.—This new work by the author of "Frank Farleigh," &c., is decidedly one of the best written novels of the age. It is full of the most exquisite drawings of the human character, and the whole quiet humor which pervades the work shows that the author is a close observer of the shallow men—and women. Every person who desires a book to amuse or to moralize over, will be suited with this" [Poughkeepsie Eagle.
"We have been favored by Messrs. Long & Brothers, No. 13 Ann-st., with a copy of a new work, entitled "Harry Coverdale's Courtship." When we know it to be the production of the author of "Frank Farleigh," and "Lewis Arundel," we actually expect something far above mediocrity, and we find in the volume all we anticipated. It shows at once the author's deep knowledge of and power of portraying human character. The incidents seem varied in their character, and truthful by strict conformity to real life. The author of Harry Coverdale's Courtship is a man of true genius" [Picayune.
"Harry Coverdale's Courtship, and What Came of It," is the title of a new work by the author of "Frank Farleigh" and "Lewis Arundel," two of the most popular novels which have been issued in years. We have glanced but hastily over this book, but we think we have discovered in it traces of the genial, humorous style, which has earned for the former efforts of the author such a deservedly world-spread reputation. No writer of the present day possesses a more graceful and sparkling style in his humorous sketches nor one who possesses in a more eminent degree the faculty of enlisting the sympathy of his readers. [Utica Evening Telegraph.
HARRY COVERDALE'S COURTSHIP, AND WHAT CAME OF IT.—This is the name of a new work by the author of "Lewis Arundel," &c., and is replete with scenes of wit, pathos and intense interest, and in many respects equal to the best efforts of Dickens. It is from the press of Long & Brother. [Albany Express.
The admirers of the author of "Frank Farleigh"—and they are many, for he is a writer of unquestionable merit—will be glad to get hold of a new product from his graceful and graphic pen. [Springfield Daily Republican.
HARRY COVERDALE'S COURTSHIP, AND WHAT CAME OF IT.—H. Long & Brother, New-York. are just published this work, by the author of "Frank Farleigh," &c. This book will be found worthy a more careful perusal than the ordinary fictions of the day. It is full of stirring incident, and abounds in striking description, and a rich vein of quiet, quaint humor, which, if we mistake not, will make it a decided favorite with the public. The author is already well and favorably known, and the present work must add to his popularity. [Baltimore Republican & Argus.
"Harry Coverdale's Courtship, and What Came of It." By the author of "Frank Farleigh," "Lewis Arundel," &c., &c. The productions of this author have been well received by the public, and his writings are held in high estimation. The present work is said to be fully equal to any which has preceded it from the same author. It is published with illustrations by H. Long & Bro., N. Y. [Balt. Clipper.
NEW YORK.—"Harry Coverdale's Courtship, and What Came of It," is the title of a work recently issued from the house of H. Long & Brother, New-York, a copy of which we are indebted to the publishers. We like its style and pervading spirit much. We like also its wholesome and kindly teachings. It is a "family story," all of incident, and abounding in graphic description and quaint humor, and cannot fail to interest and amuse the large class of persons who are predisposed to light reading. [Erie Weekly Gazette.
H. Long & Brother, No. 43 Ann-st., New-York, have just published an unabridged edition of "Harry Coverdale's Courtship," the last new work of the talented author of "Frank Farleigh" and "Lewis Arundel." In our opinion, this is the best work of an author who has risen more rapidly in public estimation than any writer of fiction of the present day. Possessing as keen an insight into the motives which govern men's actions, and as much wit and humor as Dickens, the author of "Coverdale's Courtship" has even a greater power of eliciting the gentler emotions through the depth and intensity of pathos. [Great West.

JOURNEY ROUND THE WORLD.—HARPER & BROTHERS, No. 329 Pearl-st., Publishers, have in press, and will publish on SATURDAY,
FIVE YEARS' JOURNEY ROUND THE WORLD.
Narrative of a Journey Round the World, through California, Mexico, Yucatan, Central America, the Cities, with a Visit to the Gold Regions of California and Australia, the South Sea Islands, Java, &c. By F. Gerstacker. 12mo, muslin, $1.
"A better form of narrative that the age seldom has been written. The work is filled to Rhode Island, then from the country to Valparaiso, then to California, Sandwich Islands, Australia, Sumatra, &c. The narrative is made with a wonderful degree of vivacity and cheerfulness, and overflows with personal and incidental information and exciting incidents. He has a keen eye for all that is characteristic, and cannot fail to interest readers of all classes.
"This is an extremely interesting book of travels. Mr. Gerstacker is the man, above all others to make a journey round the world, and—ask the best book about it. He makes a book so interesting, so full of information, so free from pedantry and dullness, so full of life and adventure, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull, so full of good humor, so free from all that is dull
