Mrs. Dillingham Tea

At the home of Judge and Mrs. Charles Dillingham, a week ago, the latter entertained informally for the benefit of a friend, Mrs. Alvin and was rather a small affair, and was given in honor of Mrs. Dillingham's sister, Mrs. Bennett, who is visiting at the Moana Hotel. The house looked very attractive with its decorations of Easter lilies. The guests were generously dated here and there on the lanai. Long stemmed lilies of the valley and sprays of the native kaua formed an irregular pattern on the tea table, and clusters of the same were placed about the house. Mrs. Dillingham wore a charming frock, and is remembered with kindness that her guests are reminded with the cordial welcome. Mrs. Bennett was given in honor of her and Mr. W. A. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Wentworth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank and Mrs. Morris, all of Honolulu, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ramsay, who left for their home, Mrs. At the morning after the business was so much of Mrs. Arthur Hamilton Lathrop of Honolulu.

Pre Nuptial Luncheon.

Mrs. W. A. Jones was the hostess at a luncheon given in honor of Miss Helen Hamlin, whose engagement has been recently announced to Mr. James Gibson and. The decorations for this delightful affair was carried out in the pink and white. The color scheme was white and pink. A large cut glass bowl was filled with white narcissus, fringed with Australian maiden hair. Pink ribbons were arranged from the chandelier to the table, intermingled with the narcissus. Pink and white sweets were greatly admired. Seated here and there on the table, long stemmed lilies of the valley and sprays of the native kaua were placed to an irregular pattern, producing a charming effect. The guests were each given wedding bells with pink and white ribbons, on which were cards and each ribbon. The bride of course was given in the pink ribbons, for just to the guest to have a favorite color. Those who enjoyed Mrs. W. A. Jones hospitality were: Miss Helen Hamlin, Miss Lucy Gibson, Mrs. Walter Brewer, Mrs. Harold Rowan, Mrs. Harold Rowan, Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. Ernest Wilder, Mrs. Frank Kennedy, Mrs. Dorothy Wood and Miss Amelia Atkinson.

KAOO NOT AFRAID TO MEET "SOLDIER"

Antone Kaoo, the "Waialua Horse" who was noted in the Advertiser as being ready to run "Soldier" King to a race of 10 miles, sent a letter to Thursday to the Bulletin this morning, which is self explanatory. The letter, translated, reads as follows:

"I have seen in the Advertiser article that I was afraid of running "Soldier" King up a race of 10 miles, unless given 75% odds. That statement is incorrect. I believe I can beat him in a 10-mile race, but if he has already lost in a 10-mile race, I am not afraid whatever, and I should run again with pleasure."

ANTONE KAOO.

ST. PATRICK IS REMEMBERED

Irish and Their Friends Crowd Empire Theater for Special Program.

Prominent Irishmen and hundreds of others without Hibernian blood, but with a warm spot in their hearts for the Irish, turned out last night and crowded the Empire Theater to the doors. The Ancient Order of Hibernians, which secured the house for the occasion, gave the program a big start with the Irish character of the program and the singing began.

Tom Lyons, Walter Hofgaard, Frank Hood and the quartette, Leo Fraser and Andrew S. Cunningham made the hits, but to make no mistake Irish Hearts and St. Patrick's Hymn were most jolly lots who noticed and some of the Irish lots who noticed and some of the Irish lots who noticed and some of the Irish
