SULLIVAN.

The new school board met Saturday evening and the following teachers were hired for the high school: superintendent, W. E. Heichel; grammar department, C. W. Hyde; primary department, Adele Swartz. This selection of teachers gives universal satisfaction, and the parents who have children to send to school may rest assured that if their children do not learn it will not be the fault of our teachers.

The last public literary for the school year will be held next week Friday. After that will come our graduation exercises. We have a fine class which completes the course this year. The young ladies are: Misses Alta Giar, Sidney Jones, Lee House. The young gentlemen are: Ira Garver, Murl Frink, and Edson Hill.

Miss Millie Drumb has resigned her position in "old No. 4" and accepted an offer of a school in Illinois which pays much higher wages. Miss Drumb has taught in Sullivan township for 12 years, and her ability as a teacher is universally known.

Claude Osterholt has returned from a short visit to North Baltimore where he visited relatives.

Mrs. Nora Ricket is much better.

Mr Oren Whitcomb, who has been very ill for the past month at the home of Squire Green, is slightly better.

The grammar school had a literary last Friday which was equally well attended by pupils and visitors.

The primary room has more pupils than the room can hold, so one entire class have seats in Mr. Heichel's room. There are 45 scholars in Miss Swartz's room, and if you want to be well repaid for taking an afternoon out, just spend that time visiting this room and see what time and labor are expended by this teacher on our little ones. No trouble is too great and the extra expenses are taken from her private purse. This we do not think fair.

THE BIG DEPARTMENT STORE,
WELLINGTON, OHIO.

Always to the front with what the people want. The more business we can do lessens the price of our goods. The day has past and gone when people buy goods from old friends. Friendship is a good thing, but who can afford to pay high prices to maintain it. The man who buys close and sells on a small margin will surely be appreciated by the public. If anything does n't suit you—return it, and we will refund your money.
